

Program Overview

For over 20 years, Wor-Wic Community College has prepared students for high-demand careers as professional commercial drivers. Courses utilize the latest simulation technology, dedicated field ranges, and modern fleet equipment. Developed with expert guidance from professional drivers, safety directors, and logistics executives, the curriculum prepares students directly for commercial driver license (CDL) examinations and sustainable industry employment. Wor-Wic is listed on the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) Training Provider Registry.

Minimum Eligibility Requirements

- Valid Driver's License: Must hold a valid Maryland driver's license. (Out-of-state license holders must contact Mark Miciotto at 410-334-2922).
- Commercial Permit: Must possess the appropriate CDL learner's permit.
- Program Application: Complete official online application via the Wor-Wic transportation webpage.

Wor-Wic Community College recognizes that commercial vehicle training requires a significant upfront financial commitment due to advanced technical equipment, strict fleet safety maintenance, and fuel costs. A comprehensive variety of payment plans, public workforce grants, and institutional scholarships are available to assist students in funding their credentials.

Available Payment Methods & Grant Programs

★ CMVOST Military & Family CDL Grant

Provided by the U.S. Department of Transportation, the Commercial Motor Vehicle Operator Safety Training (CMVOST) grant assists current active military members, reservists, veterans, and their spouses or children. Eligibility requires presenting the veteran's DD-214 and documentation of relationship (birth or marriage certificate). To verify eligibility, contact Jason King, Director of Veterans Services, at 410-334-2882.

Veterans Administration (VA) Education Benefits

Wor-Wic's commercial truck driver training is officially approved by the Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC) for veterans' educational benefit programs, including the GI Bill® and Veteran Readiness programs. For qualification determinations and GI Bill certification, contact Jason King, Director of Veterans Services, at 410-334-2882.

Career Starters Scholarship

Needs-based workforce funding administered directly by Wor-Wic Community College for eligible low-income individuals seeking rapid industry training. Award amounts apply toward continuing education tuition and fees. Review eligibility guidelines and submit applications online at worwic.edu/financial-assistance.

American Job Center Workforce Grants

The American Job Center administers multiple federal and Maryland state-funded workforce development grants throughout the Eastern Shore. Qualified applicants may receive complete or partial funding for CDL training depending on income, dislocation status, and career goals. These funds are non-repayable grants, not student loans. Contact the local workforce center at 410-341-6010.

Employer Direct Payment & Reimbursement

Employers may sponsor employee tuition via direct company check at registration or through formal invoicing. Employers must submit an official Letter of Authorization on corporate letterhead detailing the candidate's name, course track, class start date, billing address, approved total tuition amount, and the signature of the authorizing officer. The college invoices the company directly upon program admission.

Children's Home Foundation Scholarships

The Children's Home Foundation provides competitive philanthropic scholarships that frequently award up to 50% of the total program cost for eligible students enrolled in CDL credentials across the Eastern Shore region. For application timelines and award requirements, call 410-822-1919.

Personal Self-Payment Methods

Students funding their coursework independently may pay by cash, personal check, cashier's check, money order, or major credit/debit card (Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express).
